Common Auction Conditions (Edition 3)

REPRODUCED WITH THE CONSENT OF THE RICS

INTRODUCTION

The Common Auction Conditions have been produced for real estate auctions in England, Scotland and Wales to set a common standard across the industry. They are in three sections:

GLOSSARY

The glossary gives special meanings to certain words used in both sets of conditions.

AUCTION CONDUCT CONDITIONS

The Auction Conduct Conditions govern the relationship between the auctioneer and anyone who has a catalogue, or who attends or bids at the auction. They cannot be changed without the auctioneer's agreement.

SALE CONDITIONS

The Sale Conditions govern the agreement between each seller and buyer. They include general conditions of sale and template forms of special conditions of sale, tenancy and arrears schedules and a sale memorandum.

HOME REPORT (SCOTLAND ONLY)

The majority of properties will require a Home Report. The Law now requires that all sellers ensure a Home Report is made available to potential buyers. In order to comply, we will require a copy of the Home Report prior to printing our catalogue.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

A prudent buyer will, before bidding for a lot at an auction:

- take professional advice from a conveyancer and, in appropriate cases, a chartered surveyor and an accountant; read the conditions;
- Read the Home Report (Scotland only)
- inspect the lot;
- carry out usual searches and make usual enquiries;
- check the content of all available leases and other documents relating to the lot;
- check that what is said about the lot in the catalogue is accurate;
- have finance available for the deposit and purchase price;
- check whether VAT registration and election is advisable;

The conditions assume that the buyer has acted like a prudent buyer. If you choose to buy a lot without taking these normal precautions, you do so at your own risk.

GLOSSARY

This glossary applies to the auction conduct conditions and the sale conditions. Wherever it makes sense:

- singular words can be read as plurals, and plurals as singular words;
- a "person" includes a corporate body;
- words of one gender include the other genders;
- references to legislation are to that legislation as it may have been modified or reenacted by the date of the auction or the contract date (as applicable); and
- where the following words are printed in bold type, they have the specified meanings.

Actual completion date

The date when completion takes place or is treated as taking place for the purposes of apportionment and calculating interest.

Addendum

An amendment or addition to the conditions or to the particulars or to both whether contained in a supplement to the catalogue, a written notice from the auctioneers or an oral announcement at the auction.

Agreed completion date

Subject to condition G9.3:

- (a) the date specified in the special conditions; or
- (b) if no date is specified, 20 business days after the contract date;

but if that date is not a business day the first subsequent business day.

Approved financial institution

Any bank or building society that has signed up to the Banking Code or Business Banking Code or is otherwise acceptable to the auctioneers.

Arrears

Arrears of rent and other sums due under the tenancies and still outstanding on the actual completion date.

Arrears schedule

The arrears schedule (if any) forming part of the special conditions.

Auction

The auction advertised in the catalogue.

Continued overleaf...

Auction conduct conditions

The conditions so headed, including any extra auction conduct conditions.

Auctioneers

The auctioneers at the auction. Upon appointment to act as your Agent and Auctioneer, you are also granting us the following authority for the auction:

- The right to regulate the bidding
- The right to refuse to accept any bids without giving any reason for refusal
- The right to sell prior to auction but only with your approval and knowledge

Any day except (a) a Saturday or a Sunday; (b) a bank holiday in England, Scotland and Wales; or (c) Good Friday or Christmas Day.

Buyer

The person who agrees to buy the lot or, if applicable, that person's personal representatives: if two or more are jointly the buyer their obligations can be enforced against them jointly or against each of them separately.

Catalogue

The catalogue to which the conditions refer including any supplement to it.

Completion

Unless otherwise agreed between seller and buyer (or their conveyancers) the occasion when both seller and buyer have complied with their obligations under the contract and the balance of the price is unconditionally received in the seller's conveyancer's client account.

Condition

One of the auction conduct conditions or sales conditions.

Contract

The contract by which the seller agrees to sell, and the buyer agrees to buy the lot.

Contract date

The date of the auction or, if the lot is not sold at the auction:

- (a) the date of the sale memorandum signed by both the seller and buyer; or
- (b) if contracts are exchanged, the date of exchange. General conditions

That part of the sale conditions so headed, including any extra general conditions.

Old arrears

Arrears due under any of the tenancies that are not "new tenancies" as defined by the Landlord and Tenant (Covenants) Act 1995. The legislation does not apply in Scotland. In Scotland, an assignor has no further liability for the tenant obligations following a permitted assignment.

Sale memorandum

The form so headed (whether or not set out in the catalogue) in which the terms of the contract for the sale of the lot are recorded.

AUCTION CONDUCT CONDITIONS

A1 INTRODUCTION

A1.1 Words in bold type have special meanings, which are defined in the Glossary

A1.2 The catalogue is issued only on the basis that you accept these auction conduct conditions. They govern our relationship with you and cannot be disapplied or varied by the sale conditions (even by a condition purporting to replace the whole of the Common Auction Conditions). They can be varied only if we agree.

A2 OUR ROLE

A2.1 As agents for each seller we have authority to:

- (a) prepare the catalogue from information supplied by or on behalf of each seller;
- (b) offer each lot for sale;
- (c) sell each lot;
- (d) receive and hold deposits
- (e) sign each sale memorandum including in the case of pre and post auction sales; and
- (f) treat a contract as repudiated if the buyer fails to sign a sale memorandum or pay a deposit as required by these auction conduct conditions.

A2.2 Our decision on the conduct of the auction is final.

A2.3 We may cancel the auction or alter the order in which lots are offered for sale. We may also combine or divide lots. A lot may be sold or withdrawn from sale prior to the auction.

A2.4 You acknowledge that to the extent permitted by law we owe you no duty of care and you have no claim against us for any loss.

A3

BIDDING AND RESERVE PRICES

A3.1 All bids are to be made in pounds sterling exclusive of any applicable VAT.

A3.2 We may refuse to accept a bid. We do not have to explain why.

A3.3 If there is a dispute over bidding, we are entitled to resolve it, and our decision is final.

A3.4 Unless stated otherwise each lot is subject to a reserve price (which may be fixed just before the lot is offered for sale). If no bid equals or exceeds that reserve price the lot will be withdrawn from the auction.

A3.5 Where there is a reserve price the seller may bid (or ask us or another agent to bid on the seller's behalf) up to the reserve price but may not make a bid equal to or exceeding the reserve price. You accept that it is possible that all bids up to the reserve price are bids made by or on behalf of the seller.

A3.6 Where a guide price (or range of prices) is given that guide is the minimum price at which, or range of prices within which, the seller might be prepared to sell at the date of the guide price. But guide prices may change. The last published guide price will normally be at or above any reserve price, but not always – as the seller may fix the final reserve price just before bidding commences.

THE PARTICULARS AND OTHER INFORMATION

A4.1 We have taken reasonable care to prepare particulars that correctly describe each lot. The particulars are based on information supplied by or on behalf of the seller. You need to check that the information in the particulars is correct.

A4.2 If the special conditions do not contain a description of the lot, or simply refer to the relevant lot number, you take the risk that the description contained in the particulars is incomplete or inaccurate, as the particulars have not been prepared by a conveyancer and are not intended to form part of a legal contract.

A4.3 The particulars and the sale conditions may change prior to the auction and it is your responsibility to check that you have the correct versions.

A4.4 If we provide information, or a copy of a document, provided by others we do so only on the basis that we are not responsible for the accuracy of that information or document.

A5

THE CONTRACT

A5.1 A successful bid is one we accept as such (normally on the fall of the hammer or 60 seconds after last bid closing). This condition A5 applies to you if you make the successful bid for a lot.

A5.2 You are obliged to buy the lot on the terms of the sale memorandum at the price you bid plus VAT (if applicable).

A5.3 You must, before leaving the auction:

- (a) Provide all information we reasonably need from you to enable us to complete the sale memorandum (including proof of your identity if required by us);
- (b) sign the completed sale memorandum; and
- (c) pay the deposit.

A5.4 If you do not, we may either:

- (a) as agent for the seller treat that failure as your repudiation of the contract and offer the lot for sale again: the seller may then have a claim against you for breach of contract; or
- (b) sign the sale memorandum on your behalf.

A5.5 The deposit:

- (a) is to be held as stakeholder where VAT would be chargeable on the deposit were it to be held as agent for the seller, but otherwise is to be held as stated in the sale conditions; and
- (b) must be paid in pounds sterling by cheque or by bankers' draft made payable to us on an approved financial institution. The extra auction conduct conditions may state if we accept any other form of payment.

A5.6 We may retain the sale memorandum signed by or on behalf of the seller until the deposit has been received in cleared funds.

A5.7 If the buyer does not comply with its obligations under the contract then:

- (a) you are personally liable to buy the lot even if you are acting as an agent; and
- (b) you must indemnify the seller in respect of any loss the seller incurs as a result of the buyer's default.

A5.8 Where the buyer is a company you warrant that the buyer is properly constituted and able to buy the lot.

A6

EXTRA AUCTION CONDUCT CONDITIONS

A6.1 Despite any special condition to the contrary the minimum deposit we accept is £3,000 (or the total price, if less). A special condition may, however, require a higher minimum deposit.

GENERAL CONDITIONS OF SALE

G1. THE LOT

G1.1 The lot (including any rights to be granted or reserved, and any exclusions from it) is described in the special conditions, or if not so described the lot is that referred to in the sale memorandum.

G1.2 The lot is sold subject to any tenancies disclosed by the special conditions, but otherwise with vacant possession on completion.

G1.3	The lot is sold subject to all matters contained or referred to in the documents but excluding any financial charges: these the seller must discharge on or before completion.	G3.2	No damage to or destruction of the lot nor any deterioration in its condition, however caused, entitles the buyer to any reduction in price, or to delay completion, or to refuse to complete.
G1.4	The lot is also sold subject to such of the following as may affect it, whether they arise before or after the contract date and whether or not they are disclosed by the seller or are apparent from inspection of the lot or from the documents: (a) matters registered or capable of registration as local land charges; (b) matters registered or capable of registration by any competent authority or under the provisions of any statute; (c) notices, orders, demands, proposals and requirements of any competent authority; (d) charges, notices, orders, restrictions, agreements and other matters relating to town and country planning, highways or public health; (e) rights, easements, quasi-easements, and wayleaves; (f) outgoing and other liabilities; (g) any interest which overrides, within the meaning of the Land Registration Act 2002; (h) matters that ought to be disclosed by the searches and enquiries a prudent buyer would make, whether or not the buyer has made them; and (i) anything the seller does not and could not reasonably know about.	G3.3 G3.4	Section 47 of the Law of Property Act 1925 does not apply. Unless the buyer is already lawfully in occupation of the lot the buyer has no right to enter into occupation prior to completion.
G1.5	Where anything subject to which the lot is sold would expose the seller to liability the buyer is to comply with it and indemnify the seller against that liability.	G4. G4.1	TITLE AND IDENTITY Unless condition G4.2 applies, the buyer accepts the title of the seller to the lot as at the contract date and may raise no requisition or objection except in relation to any matter that occurs after the contract date.
G1.6	The seller must notify the buyer of any notices, orders, demands, proposals and requirements of any competent authority of which it learns after the contract date, but the buyer must comply with them and keep the seller indemnified.	G4.2	If any of the documents is not made available before the auction the following provisions apply: (a) The buyer may raise no requisition on or objection to any of the documents that is made available before the auction. (b) If the lot is registered land the seller is to give to the buyer within five business days of the contract date an official copy of the entries on the register and title plan and, where noted on the register, of all documents subject to which the lot is being sold. (c) If the lot is not registered land the seller is to give to the buyer within five business days an abstract or epitome of title starting from the root of title mentioned in the special conditions (or, if none is mentioned, a good root of title more than fifteen years old) and must produce to the buyer the original or an examined copy of every relevant document. (d) If title is in the course of registration, title is to consist of certified copies of: (i) the application for registration of title made to the land registry; (ii) the documents accompanying that application; (iii) evidence that all applicable stamp duty land tax relating to that application has been paid; and (iv) a letter under which the seller or its conveyancer agrees to use all reasonable endeavours to answer any requisitions raised by the land registry and to instruct the land registry to send the completed registration documents to the buyer. (e) The buyer has no right to object to or make requisitions on any title information more than seven business days after that information has been given to the buyer.
G1.7	The lot does not include any tenant's or trade fixtures or fittings.	G4.3	Unless otherwise stated in the special conditions the seller sells with full title guarantee except that (and the transfer shall so provide): (a) the covenant set out in section 3 of the Law of Property (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1994 shall not extend to matters recorded in registers open to public inspection; these are to be treated as within the actual knowledge of the buyer; and (b) the covenant set out in section 4 of the Law of Property (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1994 shall not extend to any condition or tenant's obligation relating to the state or condition of the lot where the lot is leasehold property.
G1.8	Where chattels are included in the lot the buyer takes them as they are at completion and the seller is not liable if they are not fit for use.	G4.4	The transfer is to have effect as if expressly subject to all matters subject to which the lot is sold under the contract.
G1.9	The buyer buys with full knowledge of: (a) the documents, whether or not the buyer has read them; and (b) the physical condition of the lot and what could reasonably be discovered on inspection of it, whether or not the buyer has inspected it.	G4.5	The seller does not have to produce, nor may the buyer object to or make a requisition in relation to, any prior or superior title even if it is referred to in the documents.
G1.10	The buyer is not to rely on the information contained in the particulars but may rely on the seller's conveyancer's written replies to preliminary enquiries to the extent stated in those replies.	G4.6	The seller (and, if relevant, the buyer) must produce to each other such confirmation of, or evidence of, their identity and that of their mortgagees and attorneys (if any) as is necessary for the other to be able to comply with applicable Land Registry Rules when making application for registration of the transaction to which the conditions apply.
G2.	DEPOSIT	G4.7	The Purchaser shall be deemed to have made all necessary enquiries in connection with planning, road status, footpaths and main drains and generally all such other matters as are normally covered by Local Authority Searches and Property Enquiry Certificates and the Seller will not be required to produce such certificates of searches.
G2.1	The amount of the deposit is the greater of: (a) any minimum deposit stated in the auction conduct conditions (or the total price, if this is less than that minimum); and (b) 10% of the price (exclusive of any VAT on the price).	G5. G5.1	TRANSFER Unless a form of transfer is prescribed by the special conditions: (a) the buyer must supply a draft transfer to the seller at least ten business days before the agreed completion date and the engrossment (signed as a deed by the buyer if condition G5.2 applies) five business days before that date or (if later) two business days after the draft has been approved by the seller; and (b) the seller must approve or revise the draft transfer within five business days of receiving it from the buyer.
G2.2	The deposit (a) must be paid in pounds sterling by cheque or banker's draft drawn on an approved financial institution (or by any other means of payment that the auctioneers may accept); and (b) is to be held as stakeholder unless the auction conduct conditions provide that it is to be held as agent for the seller.	G5.2	If the seller remains liable in any respect in relation to the lot (or a tenancy) following completion the buyer is specifically to covenant in the transfer to indemnify the seller against that liability.
G2.3	Where the auctioneers hold the deposit as stakeholder, they are authorised to release it (and interest on it if applicable) to the seller on completion or, if completion does not take place, to the person entitled to it under the sale conditions.	G5.3	The seller cannot be required to transfer the lot to anyone other than the buyer, or by more than one transfer.
G2.4	If a cheque for all or part of the deposit is not cleared on first presentation the seller may treat the contract as at an end and bring a claim against the buyer for breach of contract.	G6. G6.1	COMPLETION Completion is to take place at the offices of the seller's conveyancer, or where the seller may reasonably require, on the agreed completion date. The seller can only be required to complete on a business day and between the hours of 0930 and 1700.
G2.5	Interest earned on the deposit belongs to the seller unless the sale conditions provide otherwise.
G3.	BETWEEN CONTRACT AND COMPLETION
G3.1	Unless the special conditions state otherwise, the seller is to insure the lot from and including the contract date to completion and: (a) produce to the buyer on request all relevant insurance details; (b) pay the premiums when due; (c) if the buyer so requests, and pays any additional premium, use reasonable endeavours to increase the sum insured or make other changes to the policy; (d) at the request of the buyer use reasonable endeavours to have the buyer's interest noted on the policy if it does not cover a contracting purchaser; (e) unless otherwise agreed, cancel the insurance at completion, apply for a refund of premium and (subject to the rights of any tenant or other third party) pay that refund to the buyer; and (f) (subject to the rights of any tenant or other third party) hold on trust for the buyer any insurance payments that the seller receives in respect of loss or damage arising after the contract date or assign to the buyer the benefit of any claim; and the buyer must on completion reimburse to the seller the cost of that insurance (to the extent not already paid by the buyer or a tenant or other third party) for the period from and including the contract date to completion.

G6.2	The amount payable on completion is the balance of the price adjusted to take account of apportionments plus (if applicable) VAT and interest	(a) the seller receives income and is liable for outgoings for the whole of the day on which apportionment is to be made;
G6.3	Payment is to be made in pounds sterling and only by: (a) direct transfer to the seller's conveyancer's client account; and (b) the release of any deposit held by a stakeholder.	(b) annual income and expenditure accrues at an equal daily rate assuming 365 days in a year, and income and expenditure relating to some other period accrues at an equal daily rate during the period to which it relates; and
G6.4	Unless the seller and the buyer otherwise agree, completion cannot take place until both have complied with their obligations under the contract and the balance of the price is unconditionally received in the seller's conveyancer's client account.	(c) where the amount to be apportioned is not known at completion apportionment is to be made by reference to a reasonable estimate and further payment is to be made by seller or buyer as appropriate within five business days of the date when the amount is known.
G6.5	If completion takes place after 1400 hours for a reason other than the seller's default it is to be treated, for the purposes of apportionment and calculating interest, as if it had taken place on the next business day.
G6.6	Where applicable the contract remains in force following completion.
G7.	NOTICE TO COMPLETE
G7.1	The seller or the buyer may on or after the agreed completion date but before completion give the other notice to complete within ten business (excluding the date on which the notice is given) making time of the essence.	G11. ARREARS Part 1 Current rent
G7.2	The person giving the notice must be ready to complete.	G11.1 "Current rent" means, in respect of each of the tenancies subject to which the lot is sold, the instalment of rent and other sums payable by the tenant in advance on the most recent rent payment date on or within four months preceding completion.
G7.3	If the buyer fails to comply with a notice to complete the seller may, without affecting any other remedy the seller has: (a) terminate the contract; (b) claim the deposit and any interest on it if held by a stakeholder; (c) forfeit the deposit and any interest on it; (d) resell the lot; and (e) claim damages from the buyer.	G11.2 If on completion there are any arrears of current rent the buyer must pay them, whether or not details of those arrears are given in the special conditions.
G7.4	If the seller fails to comply with a notice to complete the buyer may, without affecting any other remedy the buyer has: (a) terminate the contract; and (b) recover the deposit and any interest on it from the seller or, if applicable, a stakeholder.	G11.3 Parts 2 and 3 of this condition G11 do not apply to arrears of current rent. Part 2 Buyer to pay arrears
G8.	IF THE CONTRACT IS BROUGHT TO AN END If the contract is lawfully brought to an end: (a) the buyer must return all papers to the seller and appoints the seller its agent to cancel any registration of the contract; and (b) the seller must return the deposit and any interest on it to the buyer (and the buyer may claim it from the stakeholder, if applicable) unless the seller is entitled to forfeit the deposit under condition G7.3.	G11.4 Part 2 of this condition G11 applies where the special conditions give details of arrears.
G9.	LANDLORD'S LICENCE	G11.5 The buyer is on completion to pay, in addition to any other money then due, an amount equal to all arrears of which details are set out in the special conditions.
G9.1	Where the lot is or includes leasehold land and licence to assign is required this condition G9 applies.	G11.6 If those arrears are not old arrears the seller is to assign to the buyer all rights that the seller has to recover those arrears. Part 3 Buyer not to pay for arrears
G9.2	The contract is conditional on that licence being obtained, by way of formal licence if that is what the landlord lawfully requires.	G11.7 Part 3 of this condition G11 applies where the special conditions: (a) so state; or (b) give no details of any arrears.
G9.3	The agreed completion date is not to be earlier than the date five business days after the seller has given notice to the buyer that licence has been obtained.	G11.8 While any arrears due to the seller remain unpaid the buyer must: (a) try to collect them in the ordinary course of management but need not take legal proceedings or forfeit the tenancy; (b) pay them to the seller within five business days of receipt in cleared funds (plus interest at the interest rate calculated on a daily basis for each subsequent day's delay in payment); (c) on request, at the cost of the seller, assign to the seller or as the seller may direct the right to demand and sue for old arrears, such assignment to be in such form as the seller's conveyancer may reasonably require (d) if reasonably required, allow the seller's conveyancer to have on loan the counterpart of any tenancy against an undertaking to hold it to the buyer's order; (e) not without the consent of the seller release any tenant or surety from liability to pay arrears or accept a surrender of or forfeit any tenancy under which arrears are due; and (f) if the buyer disposes of the lot prior to recovery of all arrears obtain from the buyer's successor in title a covenant in favour of the seller in similar form to part 3 of this condition G11.
G9.4	The seller must: (a) use all reasonable endeavours to obtain the licence at the seller's expense; and (b) enter into any authorised guarantee agreement properly required.	G11.9 Where the seller has the right to recover arrears it must not without the buyer's written consent bring insolvency proceedings against a tenant or seek the removal of goods from the lot.
G9.5	The buyer must: (a) promptly provide references and other relevant information; and (b) comply with the landlord's lawful requirements.	G12. MANAGEMENT
G9.6	If within three months of the contract date (or such longer period as the seller and buyer agree) the licence has not been obtained the seller or the buyer may (if not then in breach of any obligation under this condition G9) by notice to the other terminate the contract at any time before licence is obtained. That termination is without prejudice to the claims of either seller or buyer for breach of this condition G9.	G12.1 This condition G12 applies where the lot is sold subject to tenancies.
G10.	INTEREST AND APPORTIONMENTS	G12.2 The seller is to manage the lot in accordance with its standard management policies pending completion.
G10.1	If the actual completion date is after the agreed completion date for any reason other than the seller's default the buyer must pay interest at the interest rate on the price (less any deposit paid) from the agreed completion date up to and including the actual completion date.	G12.3 The seller must consult the buyer on all management issues that would affect the buyer after completion (such as, but not limited to, an application for licence; a rent review; a variation, surrender, agreement to surrender or proposed forfeiture of a tenancy; or a new tenancy or agreement to grant a new tenancy) and: (a) the seller must comply with the buyer's reasonable requirements unless to do so would (but for the indemnity in paragraph (c)) expose the seller to a liability that the seller would not otherwise have, in which case the seller may act reasonably in such a way as to avoid that liability; (b) if the seller gives the buyer notice of the seller's intended act and the buyer does not object within five business days giving reasons for the objection the seller may act as the seller intends; and (c) the buyer is to indemnify the seller against all loss or liability the seller incurs through acting as the buyer requires, or by reason of delay caused by the buyer.
G10.2	Subject to condition G11 the seller is not obliged to apportion or account for any sum at completion unless the seller has received that sum in cleared funds. The seller must pay to the buyer after completion any sum to which the buyer is entitled that the seller subsequently receives in cleared funds.
G10.3	Income and outgoings are to be apportioned at actual completion date unless: (a) the buyer is liable to pay interest; and (b) the seller has given notice to the buyer at any time up to completion requiring apportionment on the date from which interest becomes payable by the buyer; in which event income and outgoings are to be apportioned on the date from which interest becomes payable by the buyer.	G13. RENT DEPOSITS
G10.4	Apportionments are to be calculated on the basis that:	G13.1 This condition G13 applies where the seller is holding or otherwise entitled to money by way of rent deposit in respect of a tenancy. In this condition G13 "rent deposit deed" means the deed or other document under which the rent deposit is held.
		G13.2 If the rent deposit is not assignable the seller must on completion hold the rent deposit on trust for the buyer and, subject to the terms of the rent deposit deed, comply at the cost of the buyer with the buyer's lawful instructions.	G17.2	The buyer must assume, and indemnify the seller in respect of, all liability under such contracts from the actual completion date.

G13.3	Otherwise the seller must on completion pay and assign its interest in the rent deposit to the buyer under an assignment in which the buyer covenants with the seller to: (a) observe and perform the seller's covenants and conditions in the rent deposit deed and indemnify the seller in respect of any breach; (b) give notice of assignment to the tenant; and (c) give such direct covenant to the tenant as may be required by the rent deposit deed.	G18. G18.1 G18.2	LANDLORD AND TENANT ACT 1987 This condition G18 applies where the sale is a relevant disposal for the purposes of part I of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1987. The seller warrants that the seller has complied with sections 5B and 7 of that Act and that the requisite majority of qualifying tenants has not accepted the offer.
G14.	VAT	G19. G19.1 G19.2 G19.3 G19.4	SALE BY PRACTITIONER This condition G19 applies where the sale is by a practitioner either as seller or as agent of the seller. The practitioner has been duly appointed and is empowered to sell the lot. Neither the practitioner nor the firm or any member of the firm to which the practitioner belongs has any personal liability in connection with the sale or the performance of the seller's obligations. The transfer is to include a declaration excluding that personal liability.
